Suicide

Although neither a school nor a teacher has a duty to warn of the suicidal tendencies of a student absent the teacher's or school's knowledge of direct evidence of such suicidal tendencies, the Charter School may, in its sole discretion, provide the following programs in order to prevent adolescent suicide by:

1. Offering and providing help and assistance including early identification;
2. Support and/or counseling by Charter School support personnel for low-risk students;
3. Referral to appropriate sources outside the Charter School for high and moderate-risk students;
4. Attendance to the rights of the student and his or her family; and
5. After care support by the Charter School for faculty, staff, and students after a sudden death has occurred.
