PYP Homework Guidelines

- Homework Journals are due every Monday. Please have your child bring their homework journal on Monday to show completed math solving problems, reading response, and typing practice. They may choose any four days during the week to do their homework.
- IXL Math- The students will do 15 minutes of math practice on IXL four times per week.

- Spelling – Students will complete 10 minutes of spelling 4 times per week.
 - Students will be tested each Monday on their words from the previous week
- Reading Response- The students will write a response about what they have read. They should write the number of sentences according to their instructional level. For example, if their instructional level is fourth grade, they will write 4 sentences.
